OFFICE NOTE.

SUBJECT :—

Misappropriation of Rs 257-3-2 by Parpatthegar Varahaswami Aiyangar of the Sri Ranganathaswami temple at Seringapatam

LAST REFERENCE.

Letter No. 153 dated 29th December 1903 from the ~~Deputy~~ Commissioner, Mysore District.

24.5.1902 The Peshkar of the above temple reported that Kaingatha Venkatachar, Dharmadarsi of the above temple, who had undertaken to get the Kirita made had been dead, that his father-in-law Krishnaiyengar, Sheristadar at Chitaldrug had come to Seringapatam but had not handed over charge of the Kirita and other things and that Venkatachar, while alive had agreed to bear the cost of preparation of the Kirita.

23.6.1902 A Addl Srinivasaiyengar petitioned that Venkatachar had kept the money (Rs 257-3-2) in the iron safe at the temple and had given the key thereof to Parpatthegar Varahaswami Aiyangar but Varahaswami Aiyangar who was asked after the death of Venkatachar said that the money had been taken away by Venkatachar while he alive.

The Peshkar of the temple to whom the above petition was sent for report stated that there was some misunderstanding between Addl. Srinivasaiyan and Varahaswamiyan, that Venkatachar had told him and Head Sirastachar that he had kept the money in the temple itself and further that everything would be elucidated after the accounts of Venkatachar were produced. 8.7.02

One Anonymous petition alleged to be from one Venkatarangiyan of Seringapatam stating that Rs 217-3-2 due to Venkatachar for forming a flower garden in the Compound of the Sri Ranganatha Swami temple at Seringapatam had been made over by him (V.achar) for the Kirita under pressure by him (V.achar) for the Kirita under pressure by Varahaswamiyan and that it was subsequently reported to be missing, received in this office, was sent to the Deputy Commissioner for thorough enquiry and report. RC 276 d: 22.8.02.

Vene Rangaswamiyan from whom Varahaswamiyan had borrowed Rs 225 pawning some of his jewels, deposed before the Amildar that he took back the jewels paying principal Rs 225 and interest Rs 11 on 24.3.02. 4.9.02

Archak Srinivas Rangabhatta also deposed that V atachar had given him the key of the iron safe two Ghatiges or one hour prior to his death and that it was with him since then but that he knew not whether any money had been kept therein or not Parthasaran Varadaswamiengar who deposed before the Murasu officer on 4.9.02 stated that the key of the iron safe used to be with Venkatachari but as Ananth had not been coming in time the key of the outer door (ಹೊರ ಬಾಗಿಲು) used to be with him and that he had cleared the debt of Vera Rangaswamiengar out of the savings from his pay for 7 or 8 months and from the money due to him by Kyatanahalli Srinivasa Jois.

Sheristadar Krishnaiengar deposed before the Amildar on 8.9.02 that there was an entry in Venkatachari's own account in his own handwriting on 5.2.02 that Rs 217-3-2 received on account of forming the garden and Rs 40/- for digging the car had been placed in the iron safe in the temple.

"ಶ್ರೀ ಲಕ್ಷ್ಮೀನರಸಿಂಹಸ್ವಾಮಿ ದೇವಸ್ಥಾನದಲ್ಲಿ ಇಟ್ಟಿರುವ ಕಬ್ಬಿಣದ ಪೆಟ್ಟಿಗೆ"

"ಸಂಬಂಧಪಟ್ಟ ಕೀಲಿಯನ್ನು ಕೊಡಲಿಲ್ಲವೆಂದು" Archak Srinivasa Rangabhatta sent a registered petition on 12.9.02 stating that when he gave his statement before the Amildar on 4.9.02 ~~the~~ he was in a confused state of mind and was afraid and that he had not received the key from Venkatachar.

On 28.9.02, Varadaswamiengar applied for 25 days leave with allowances on account of some deaths in his family from Plague at Nellore.

The Avildar reported that he was in favor of recommending 29.9.02 the leave application of V. Anjaneyan as he had already given him 24 days leave, as the Karita Case had been pending enquiry and as reminders were being received from the Dy Coll and the Sub. Dy officer. The Sub Dy officer ordered the 29.10.02 recall of the man from leave and the completion of the enquiry. V. Anjaneyan again applied for 13.11.02 leave till the end of November 1902 on account of his own ill-health and some inconveniences in his family. The Avildar reported that V. 28.11.02 Anjaneyan had repeatedly been applying for leave and the enquiry into the case could not be completed.
The Sub Dy officer ordered that the man should be served with summonses to appear. The Avildar 20.12.02. having reported that Nagadi Gunnaiah Krishnappa had been looking after the duties of the Parpatteyan the Sub. Dy officer approved of the Avildar's recommendation and suspended the Karapatteyan V. Anjaneyan 24.12.02.
V. Anjaneyan petitioned the Avildar that he would represent 9.1.03 his case either before the Sub. Dy officer or the Dy Coll as he was afraid to say anything before the Avildar and as Shri Krishnappa had been set upon entangling him.
V. Anjaneyan deposed before the S.D. officer that 19.1.03 "ಪ್ಪಾಯಿಂಟ್ಮೆಂಟ್ ಆರ್ಡರ್ ಮೇರೆಗೆ ಪರ್ಪತ್ತೆಯಾಗಿ ಕೆಲಸ ಮಾಡಿದ್ದೇನೆ ಆಯ್ತು ... ಅಂತ ಹೇಳಿ ಪರ್ಪತ್ತೆಯಾಗಿ ಕೆಲಸ ಮಾಡಿದ್ದೇನೆ "[illegible]" "[illegible]" "[illegible]" etc., that Venkatachar had paid in his presence Rs 76 (as 7-1/2 [illegible] Hej in his (Vachar) house to Goldsmith and obtained a receipt therefor, that he had heard that the key had been given to archek Srinivas Rangabhatta a day previous to his death and that after his death, the key was produced by the archek and [illegible] prepared by the Peshkar. Krishnappa 28.2.03 deposed before the Amildar that the payment of Rs 76-7-6 to Goldsmith had not been entered in Venkatachars account book in his writing, that the females told him that Rs 50 or 60 had been spent for 2 days funeral ceremonies, that he arrived only on the second day, that the balance according to the deceased's account was only Rs 25 and that the females told him that there was some money in the polaka and in a bag.

28.2.03 V. Anjaniya stated that Rs 76-7-6 for which receipt had been produced by Krishnappa should have been paid from Rs 257-3-2, that the funeral expenses also should have been defrayed therefrom and therefore the money should be made good by Krishnappa.

In Venkatachars account book, there is an Stamped receipt dtd: 17.2.02 was produced by Krishnappa enquiry on 10.2.02 "[illegible] not fully written up.

The Shiha book produced shows that the key used to be either with Perchak Srinivas Rangacha bhatta or Venkatachar or Krishnamachar.

Addl Srinivasiengar petitioned that he should 4.6.03 be present at the enquiry of V. Ranganathan and that he would prove the case.

The Sub. Dy officer reported to the Dy Comr 22.6.03 that Venkatachar was responsible for all the works connected with the Kirita and that he alone should be held responsible for the money.

The Deputy Commissioner states the facts of the case and that the Sub Dy officer doubts if the money was at all kept in the iron safe of the temple and further that it is not temple money but the deceased's.

Submitted to the Dewan.

The Complaint is that Peshkar Varadachariar Rangachariar has appropriated Rs 257-3-2 which Purohithar Venkatachar had kept in the iron safe in the temple. for utilizing it for a Kirita, Venkatachar received this amount on the 5th Feb 1902 from the Seringapatam Treasury thereby the amount due to them for forming a flower garden near the Temple He took ill on the 14th Feb and died on the 20th. He entry in his account-book in his own hand-writing is said to stand as per that the amount was kept in the Temple iron safe through Varahasawmy Iyer On the 17th the Venkatachar paid Rs 76-7-6 on account of Gold bought for Kirita and obtained a receipt.

The Key of the safe seems to have been all along with Venkatachar as stated in the Subordinate Officers report to the Dy. Commr. The clerk Srinivas - Rayabhatta at one time deposed that he had received the Key from Venkatachar about an hour before his death, and but subsequently denied it. Varahasawmy Iyengar redeemed some of his jewels from Venu Rayasawmy Iyengar by paying him Rs 236 on the 24th March and this circumstance by itself is not sufficient to shew that this money was the amount said to have been kept in the iron-safe by Venkatachar. The Peshkar on the other hand has stated that the he cleared the account of the savings of his pay for the and from the money due to them by Kyatanhalli Jois. Besides the money said to have been misappropriated was the private money of Venkatachar, which Venkatachar had entrusted to Varadarajan, to be invested, to use for a Kuri[illegible] [illegible] where he was employed. Both the Dy Commr and the Sub Dy officer appear therefore correct in their opinion that there is hardly any evidence to inculpate Varadarajan Iyengar in the matter. The complaint may therefore be rejected

1.4.04

16940/24.04

19021

I suppose it is clear that the money referred to did not belong to Iyengar and that it was the private property of Venkatachar. If it is so the present complaint may be rejected and further action dropped

Sir

With reference to the accompanying Petition received with your docket-No :- 276/15-95 of the 22nd August '02, I have the honor to report that the petition appears to be a pseudonymous one in that there is no one in Seringapatam of the name of Ellelook - Ekkalee Rangiengar.

It is however true that Addika - Sreenivasiengar of the Ranganatha Swami temple has complained to the Amildar of the misappropriation of the Sum of Rupees 217 by Panchalingam Varadaraswami Iyengar

The amildar has issued summons to the parties and witnesses concerned and fixed a date for hearing the complaint.

Paruphattegar Varahaswami Iyengar denies ever having been entrusted with the money as will be seen from the enclosed statement made by him this day before Assistant Commissioner, Mr. Sivagiri Road. in order to decide and the question whether he was so entrusted with the money, a number of persons residing in Chitaldroog and Hiriyur have to be examined. As soon as their examination is completed, I shall report the result of the enquiry and the action taken thereon.

The enclosed is a copy of the order issued in the meantime to the Amildar Sirungapatam.

Sir,

With reference to your circular No 2580/15-95-dated the 23rd June 1903 calling for certain information regarding the conduct of Varadha -Iyengar, Parapattegar of the Sri Ranganatha Swami temple at Seringapatam, I have the honour to transmit herewith the correspondence ending with the French Rocks Inc Division Officer's Yadi No 160 dated the 22nd June 1903. Kari -yatha Venkatachar, late Dharmadarshi of the Sri Ranganathaswami temple was entrusted with the preparation of the Kireeta of Sri Ranga -nathaswami. On the 5th of February 1902, he received Rs 21-3-2 plus Rs 4-0-0 in all (Rs 25)-3-2 from the Taluk Treasury due to him for forming a flower garden &c near the temple of Sri Ranga nathaswami. He intended to use the money in making the Kireeta, and seems to have kept it in the iron-safe of the temple intended for the Kireeta. He took ill on the 14th February 1902 and died on the 20th February 1902. Thereon it was reported that the money had disappeared.

The marginally noted petitions received complaining against Varahaswami Iyengar, Parpathegar of the Sri Ranganatha swami Temple at Sreerangapatam.

And,

Correspondence ending with letter No. 153, dated 29th December 1903, from the Deputy Commissioner Mysore District, reporting on the above. —— " ——

No. 3932 Dy 20.6.04.

Order thereon

The complaint is that Parpathegar Varahaswami Iyengar misappropriated a sum of Rs 257-3-2 which Dharmadarsi Venkatachar had kept in the iron-safe in the ~~the~~ Sri Ranganathaswami temple for utilizing it for a Kirita to the Utsava Vigraha.

2. From the records of enquiry submitted with the Dy Commr's letter read above, it is observed that Venkatachar received this amount viz Rs 257-3-2 on the 5th February 1902 from the Srirangapatam Taluk Treasury, it being the amount due to him for the flower garden formed by him near the temple. ~~He died~~ He took ill on the 14th February 1902 and died on the 20th idem An entry in his account book in his own handwriting is said to state that the amount was kept in the temple iron-safe through Varahaswami Iyengar. On the 17th February 1902, Venkatachar paid Rs 76-7-6 on account of gold bought for Kuota and obtained a receipt therefor The key of the iron safe had been all along with Venkatachar as stated ~~by~~ in the Sub-Div Officer's Yadi ~~to~~ to the Deputy Commr Archak Srinivasa Ranga Bhatta at one time deposed that he had received the key from Venkatachar about an hour before his death, but subsequently denied it. Varaha-swami Iyengar redeemed some of his jewels from Veene Rangasami Iyengar by paying Rs 236/- on the 24th March 1902. But this circumstance by itself is not sufficient to show that that money was the amount said to have been kept in the iron safe by Venkatachar. Varahaswamy Iyengar has on the other hand deposed that he cleared the debt out of the savings of his pay and from the money due to him by Kyatanahalli Jors. Besides, the money said to have been misappropriated was the private property of Venkatachar which the latter intended to use for a Kuuta and it is not clear where he was keeping it

2. Under these circs, the Govt. concur in the opinion of the Deputy Commr that there is hardly any evidence to inculpate Varahaswamy Iyengar. The complaint petitions are accordingly rejected.
